

Grande

© Copyright 2024 Clayton C. Tovey & Everett V. Somerville

Grande City Map

Grande is a fictional British city in the detective fictional universe conceived by Everett Somerville and Clayton C. Tovey. It is the largest city of the fictional metropolitan county of Great Grande in England, located south of Bristol.

- Celton
Cel. is the oldest district in Grande and the historical birthplace of the city. An elder detective called Edward Brown lives here, and at the border with the Briderige lies Grande's largest park, Earl Park.
- Government District
GD is the seat of the Grande City government and, without a doubt, the city centre. The headquarters of Great Grande Police Station is located at 57 Queen Street in this district.
- West Stationland
WS is named after Alinton Station, once the largest railway station in Grande, and it is home to numerous commercial areas. The headquarter of The Celton Voice News Group Company is located on Wilst Street in the northern part of the district, near the Riverside. It is also the location of the new office of the two main detective characters in the novel after 2021. When they first moved to the district, Everett lived in a rented flat on Wilson Street and later moved to the third floor of the office. Clayton lived in a rented flat near the boundary between the West Stationland and the Tower Town.

- The Riverside

Riv. is home to numerous villa communities, including the renowned Riverside Town. It is a scenic and relatively affluent district with a high cost of living, where many wealthy residents choose to purchase property.

- West District

From 2017 to 2021, the two detectives' office was located at 76 Charles Street in WD. Everett and Clayton attended the University of Grande in this district from 2013 to 2016. The two detectives lived in the residence behind a friend of them, Laurence Stanley's coffee shop in this district from 2014 to 2021.

- Chapel Area

CA is home to numerous old, small churches and is a popular tourist destination.

- The Tower Town

TT is famous for the ancient city wall and turrets. Clayton's family home is located in the northeastern part of this district, near the South District and the Government District. In 1997, Clayton and his parents moved back to this district from Hong Kong.

- Briderige

Bri. is famous for Celton Royal Bridge, located on the border with the Celton. An elder detective, Leonard Sawyer lives here. It is considered the best place to enjoy views of the River of Grande.

- North District

ND is a district located in the northern part of Grande near Bristol.

- East District

ED is the largest district in Grande. Numerous factories and manufacturing facilities locate here.

- South District

A detective named Hugh Vane lives at the southernmost end of SD. He often refers to himself as the Detective King of the South 😂.

